New Series: GORGIAS COPTIC STUDIES

Gorgias Press is launching a new series on Coptic Christianity. The series consists of monographs, collected volumes, and texts and translations of Coptic documents from Antiquity to modern times. We welcome submissions dealing with all aspects of Coptic Christianity, Literature, and Language, except studies dealing exclusively with Nag Hammadi and Manichaean materials. We are particularly interested in studies on Coptic monasticism, liturgy, hagiography, architecture, and Copto-Arabic relations. Please send your submission either to Maged S.A. Mikhail (mmikhail@fullerton.edu) or Tuomas Rasimus (tuomas.rasimus@helsinki.fi) and cc to submissions@gorgiaspress.com.

Editorial Board: David Brakke, Lance Jenott, Hugo Lundhaug, Maged S.A. Mikhail, Tuomas Rasimus, Janet Timbie.
